

1708 GALLERY

Seven Messengers: Selections from the Art Count Project

Dates: June 6th - July 5th

1703 GALLERY

A NON-PROFIT SPACE FOR NEW ART

FRIDAY JUNE, 6 - SATURDAY JULY 5, 2003

319 West Broad Street

P.O. Box 12520

OPENING: 8-10 PM, FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 2003

Richmond, Virginia 23241

tel 804.643.1708

GALLERY TALK: AYLENE FALLAH

www.1708GALLERY.org

AND KATE WOODLIFF

1:30PM SATURDAY, JUNE 14

Seven Messengers: Selections from the Art Count Project

Mixed Media

Aylene Fallah

Craig Pleasants

Joan Gaustad

Ben Pranger

Todd Murphy

Kate Woodliff

Tom Nakashima

Each artist in this exhibition represents a different region of our state and possesses a distinctive voice and aesthetic. These artists were selected from the "Counting Cards", a millennial exhibition that surveyed the works of close to 1000 Virginia Artists.

This exhibition seeks to expose the public to contemporary artists that challenge us by addressing the human condition.

Co-Curator and Art Count Facilitator Amie Oliver

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage PAID
Permit Number 751
Richmond, Virginia

Gallery Sponsors and Benefactors: A Sharper Palate • Anonymous • Arts and Cultural Funding Consortium • Tom and Ellen Blackstone • BOB Architecture • Page and Sandy Bond • Sally Brown • The Bruce Ford Brown Charitable Trust • La Difference International Furnishings • Dominion Resources • William Jay Fields • The Sydney & Frances Lewis Foundation • Wallace B. & Nancy Millner • The National Endowment for the Arts • Tom & Susan Papa • The Mary Morton Parsons Foundation • The Virginia Commission for the Arts • Design by CODY Graphics, Inc. • Scans and Printing by Digital Ink